

2019 New York Assembly Bill No. 6197, New York Two Hundred Forty-Second Legislative Session

NEW YORK BILL TEXT

TITLE: Authorizes county offices for the aging to accept and process supplemental nutrition assistance program (SNAP) and low-income home energy assistance program applications.

VERSION: Introduced

March 04, 2019

Crespo, Marcos A.

Image 1 within document in PDF format.

SUMMARY: CRESPO Add i225, Eld L; amd ii95 & 97, Soc Serv L Authorizes county offices for the aging to accept and process supplemental nutrition assistance program (SNAP) and low-income home energy assistance program applications.

TEXT:

STATE OF NEW YORK _____

6197

2019-2020 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

March 4, 2019 _____

Introduced by M. of A. CRESPO -- read once and referred to the Committee on Aging

AN ACT to amend the elder law and the social services law, in relation to authorizing county offices for the aging to accept and process supplemental nutrition assistance program (SNAP) and low-income home energy assistance program applications

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The elder law is amended by adding a new section 225 to read as follows:

§ 225. Supplemental nutrition assistance program (SNAP) and low-income home energy assistance program applications for the elderly. 1. (a) In consultation with the commissioner of temporary and disability assistance, the office shall establish, for use by county offices for the aging, a best practice model for such county offices to accept and process applications for the supplemental nutrition assistance program (SNAP) pursuant to section ninety-five of the social services law and the low-income home energy assistance program pursuant to section ninety-seven of the social services law from elderly individuals seeking services from such county offices. Such best practices model shall be developed and established by the office after a review of all county offices for the aging programs offering similar services to elderly individuals at the effective date of this section.

(b) Within three years of the establishment of the best practice model pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision, all county offices for the aging shall adopt such best practice model and begin accepting and processing applications from elderly individuals for the supplemental nutrition assistance program (SNAP) pursuant to section ninety-five of the social services law and the low-income home energy assistance program pursuant to section ninety-seven of the social services law. A county office for the aging may request an extension to adopt such best practice model by making a written request to the director.

(c) County offices for the aging and local social services districts shall have the ability to disclose and share information with respect to such applications and the supplemental nutrition assistance program (SNAP) and the low-income home energy assistance program. For purposes of this section, "elderly individual" shall mean a person sixty years of age or older.

2. The director shall promulgate any rules and regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of this section.

§ 2. Section 95 of the social services law is amended by adding a new subdivision 11 to read as follows:

11. The office for the aging is authorized and required, subject to state and federal laws and regulations and in consultation with the office, to act on behalf of the office and accept and process applications for the supplemental nutrition assistance program from elderly individuals pursuant to section two hundred twenty-five of the elder law.

§ 3. Section 97 of the social services law is amended by adding a new subdivision 6 to read as follows:

6. The office for the aging is authorized and required, subject to state and federal laws and regulations and in consultation with the department, to act on behalf of the department and accept and process applications for the low-income home energy assistance program from elderly individuals pursuant to section two hundred twenty-five of the elder law.

§ 4. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law; provided, however, effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made on or before such date.